12 Stratton Street. Dec. 18th 1847

My dear Sir

I had intended as a mark of my Regard & the Estimation in which I hold your benevolent Disposition to bequeath to me the humble Legacy of £100 - but as I have witnessed with much regret the inroads which Over-exertion appears to make upon your health I have thought that the Amount thus trifling might be more acceptable at the present time - I hope therefore you will excuse my sending the enclosed as an anticipated Legacy -

Ever your most faithfully
J. M. Morgan
